Subject: Cellceutix - briefing schedule

Michael,

As I mentioned on the phone, since this is a PSLRA case it makes sense to set a briefing schedule for amending the complaint and answering or moving to dismiss that is keyed off of when the court appoints lead plaintiff. So I propose the following schedule – lead plaintiff will amend within 60 days of an order appointing lead plaintiff, Defendants shall move to dismiss or answer within 60 days of that. If a motion to dismiss is filed, Plaintiffs shall have 60 days to oppose, and defendants will have 30 days to reply.
